Members of the Student Branch of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers heard a talk by Dr. Napoleon Agapetus, April 14. Dr. Agapetus spoke on the organization of the M. W. Kellogg Company of New York and traced an order from its inception to the finished product.

Edward Bailey and Carlyle Shoemaker were elected as representatives to the Engineer's Council. Three committee chairmen were also appointed: George Montgomery, social; Bob Casciani, sports; and Halvor Christianson, publicity.
